EMAIL SUBJECT: OPAL Fuels to Become Publicly Traded Company on Nasdaq

Dear [Stakeholder/Customer/Partner Name]

As a valued partner to OPAL Fuels, we wanted to take a moment to let you know about some exciting news. Today, we are thrilled to announce a significant milestone for OPAL Fuels as we plan to go public and list our stock on Nasdaq through a business combination with a special purpose acquisition company (SPAC), ArcLight Clean Transition Corp. II ("ArcLight"). We issued a release this morning about the transaction, which can be viewed here.

Because ArcLight Clean Transition Corp. II is already publicly traded, OPAL Fuels will become a public company when the deal is complete, trading on Nasdaq under the ticker symbol "OPL." We expect to complete the transaction in Q2 of 2022. We will continue to operate under the OPAL Fuels name and manage our business the way we do today. It's business as usual at OPAL Fuels.

OPAL Fuels is a leading platform in the renewable fuels space for two primary reasons. First, our vertically integrated model differentiates us from other players in the industry, giving our stakeholders both a margin capture and business capture opportunity at each point along the RNG value chain. Second, with more than two decades of experience in the clean energy business, we have the depth and breadth of expertise to evaluate and execute on a robust pipeline of RNG projects to support our customers' and partners' growth.

This event provides significant financial resources to fund our accelerated growth and scale our waste-to-energy, vertically integrated renewable fuels platform. As a public company, we will be ideally positioned to meet the fast-growing demand for renewable fuel solutions and expand the role of ultra low-carbon renewable natural gas across the transportation sector. We are excited to kick off the next chapter in our journey to chart the course for the renewable natural gas industry and support our customers' decarbonization efforts.

Thank you sincerely for the part that you have played in getting us to this point. We look forward to continuing to work together.

Please don't hesitate to reach out with any questions.

Sincerely,

Adam Comora
